

Biography

Patty Lattin

Chief Human Resources Officer

Patty Lattin is Chief Human Resources Officer. With over 25 years of experience in Human Resources, Ms. Lattin has held the position of Head of Global Human Resources at Legg Mason since 2009 and in 2016 she became a Senior Managing Director.

Ms. Lattin has been with Legg Mason for 20 years joining financial services from the healthcare field. She has held a variety of positions in every functional area of Human Resources including Head of Employee Relations, Director of Benefits, Director of Employment and is a member of Legg Mason's Operating Committee.

She is a regular volunteer in the community and currently sits on the board of Paul's Place, Thread and on the HR Committee for the Board of Catholic Charities.

She holds a Bachelor's degree in English, is SPHR certified, is a graduate of the SII Leadership Program through the Wharton School and has completed the Greater Baltimore Committee Leadership Program.