Exemptions (see instructions)

Exempt payee code (if any) _____ Exemption from FATCA reporting code (if any) _____

I understand that federal law requires financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person or entity that opens a new account. Account owners are asked to provide their names, addresses, dates of birth (if applicable) and other information, which may include driver's license numbers or other identification numbers, so that the institution can accurately verify their identity. If Legg Mason is unable to verify a client's identity within a reasonable time after the account opening, the firm may restrict or close the account.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued and will provide the number to the fund as soon as it is issued), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification Instructions: Strike through item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. If a real estate transaction, no requirement to complete item 2. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN.

If you are subject to backup withholding, check the box in front of the following statement.

I have been notified by the IRS that I am subject to backup withholding.

The IRS does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.

If you are a Transfer on Death (TOD) Beneficiary(ies), by signing the below you also certify that: under penalty of perjury, that there are no known disputes as to the persons entitled to a distribution under the non-probate transfer or the amounts to be distributed to each person, and no known claims that would affect the distribution requested.
