Investment risks

All investments involve risk, including the possible loss of principal. Investment in company shares: The fund invests in shares of companies, and the value of these shares can be negatively affected by changes in the company, its industry or the economy in which it operates. Geographical focus: This fund invests primarily in Asia, which means that it is more sensitive to local economic, market, political or regulatory events in Asia, and will be more affected by these events than other funds that invest in a broader range of regions. Emerging markets investment: The fund may invest in the markets of countries which are smaller, less developed and regulated, and more volatile than the markets of more developed countries. Investment in smaller company shares: The fund buys shares in smaller companies. It may be difficult to sell these shares, in which case the fund may not be able to minimise a loss on such shares. Fund currency: Changes in exchange rates between the currencies of investments held by the fund and the fund's base currency may negatively affect the value of an investment and any income received from it. Fund operations: The fund is subject to the risk of loss resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people or systems or those of third parties such as those responsible for the custody of its assets, especially to the extent that it invests in developing countries.

The top ten holdings and sector breakdown are provided for information purposes only and should not be deemed a recommendation to buy or sell the securities mentioned. A negative cash position may be apparent, which is primarily due to the Fund's unsettled trade activity. This is a more concise approach to defining the cash position and it best represents sector exposures in the Fund.

Portfolio characteristics are based on the total portfolio as of month-end and are subject to change at any time.

There is no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its objective.

Tracking Error: Dispersal of differences between the returns obtained by the Fund and the benchmark variation.

Information Ratio: The ratio of annualized expected residual return to residual risk.

R-Squared: Measures the strength of the linear relationship between the fund and its benchmark. R-Squared at 100 implies perfect linear relationship and zero implies no relationship exists.

Total Expense Ratio ("TER"): The TER represents the Fund's actual operating expenses over the past 12 months as of the date indicated. The TER includes investment management fees, custody and administration fees, shareholder service fees, and other expenses. For those share classes which have not been active for an entire year the TER presented is annualized. The Net Expense is the Gross Expense less the advisory fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements. Net Expense reflects the expenses being charged to the fund or share class and reflected in the Net Asset Value. The fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements are voluntary and can be eliminated at any time.
