1. The date on or after which a fund is traded without the previously declared distribution. On this date the seller, and not the buyer, of the fund will be entitled to the recently announced distribution.

2. The date established for the purpose of determining the shareholders who are entitled to receive a distribution.

3. The date in which the distribution is scheduled to be paid.

* Additional year end distribution to be paid if necessary, to ensure that the funds have met certain minimum distribution requirements on a calendar year basis in order to avoid or minimize the imposition of federal excise taxes on the fund.

Please contact Dealer Services regarding any distribution questions at dealerservices@leggmason.com.

Investors should consider the fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing. Find this and other information in each fund's prospectus or if available, summary prospectus, at www.leggmasonfunds.com. Read it carefully before investing.

All investments involve risk, including possible loss of principal.

The Distribution Rate is not guaranteed, subject to change, and is not a quotation of Fund performance. Dividends and capital gains represent past performance which is no guarantee of future results, and there is no assurance that they will continue. Capital gains, if any, are fully taxable.
