Every shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the above meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend, speak and vote in his stead. A body corporate may appoint an authorised representative to attend, speak and vote on its behalf. A proxy or an authorised representative need not be a shareholder of the Company. Measures to reduce Covid-19 transmission at the AGM

We consider the health of Shareholders, attendees at the AGM and the staff of the Company's service providers a top priority. Shareholders are strongly encouraged to appoint a proxy to vote at the AGM on their behalf, as the preferred means of fully and safely exercising their rights, as personal attendance at the AGMs may present a risk to themselves and others. Insofar as practicable, the AGM will be held in accordance with the guidance of the Health Service Executive (the Irish public health authority), meaning:

- the AGM will be as brief as possible;
- personal attendance is not recommended and Shareholders are encouraged to appoint proxies to vote on their behalf;
- refreshments will not be provided; and
- a dial-in conference telephone facility is available on request from the company secretary (please email fundscosec@arthurcox.com) as an alternative to appointing a proxy – shareholders who have elected to appoint a proxy will not be required to dial-in to the conference.
